

I'm going to the Cooper Hewitt Museum for storytime!

Some people might be wearing face masks.
I can wear a mask too.

This is Professor Lionel Longlegs. Fae is a drag performer. Fae will read stories to me.

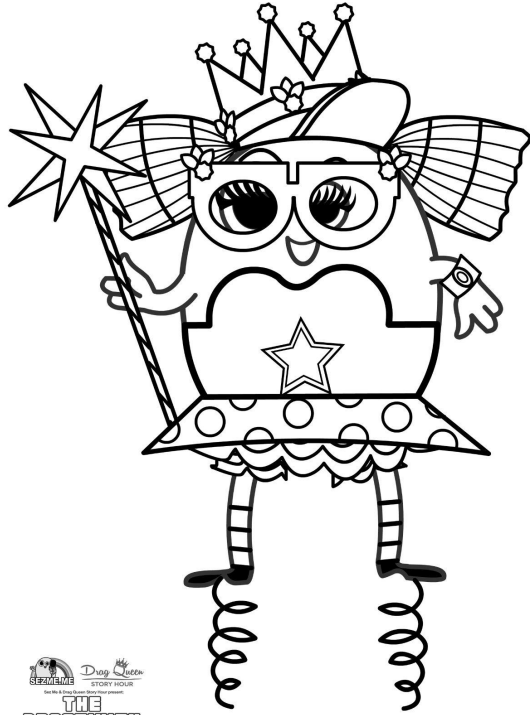

Professor Lionel Longlegs likes to paint its face, wear fancy costumes, and do silly voices while reading books!

The reading will take place in the Lecture Room.
I can sit down for the reading, or move around if I want to.

DRAG is when you become your favorite made-up character!

DRAG QUEEN
BOOK

We will take a break in the middle to do some coloring.

After the story, I can use markers and stickers to make my own design for a pin I can wear.

We're going to have so much fun together at Drag Story Hour!
