

PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN CONSENT

Child's Name: _____

I, _____, am the parent or legal guardian of the child listed above. My child is _____ years of age and currently enrolled in grade _____.

In consideration of the opportunity for my child to participate in the Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum ("Smithsonian") National High School Design Competition ("Design Competition"), I agree that:

- My child's participation is subject to the 2019 Design Competition Rules and Conditions, which I have reviewed with him or her.
- My child will retain his or her rights to his or her entry (or in the case of team entries, his or her contribution to the team entry) and, if selected as a finalist, his or her (or his or her contribution to a team's) design and presentation materials as further developed during the competition (collectively, the "Designs"), but that the Smithsonian, Target Corporation ("Target"), and those authorized by the Smithsonian, may copy, publish, distribute, publicly display, and otherwise use the Designs in whole or in part for any educational, promotional, or other standard museum purpose, in any media now known or later developed, without compensation to me or my child. This includes, but is not limited to, archives, educational programs, exhibitions, fundraising, promotions (including on social media), research, and publications. This permission is irrevocable and perpetual. Any commercial use requires additional permissions.
- Should my child be selected as an honorable mention or finalist:
 - His or her first name and last name, age, grade, school, and city and state in which he or she resides may be publicly announced on the Design Competition website and promotional materials.
 - The Smithsonian and Target may photograph, video and otherwise document my and my child's participation in any of the Design Competition-related programs and activities, and to use any such documentation (which may include my and/or my child's likeness, statements, name, or actions) for any educational, promotional, or standard museum purpose, in any media now known or later developed, without compensation to me or my child. I will encourage my child to cooperate with the Smithsonian and Target's reasonable requests in connection with the Design Competition.
 - My child and I shall refrain from publicly discussing his or her selection as an honorable mention or finalist until after Cooper Hewitt has made the official public announcement on its website on March 25, 2019.
- Should my child be selected as a finalist:
 - He or she will participate in a one-hour-long phone conversation with an assigned mentor during April 2019 prior to Mentor Weekend.
 - Parents and/or legal guardians must provide one chaperone for each trip (one chaperone per entry, whether the entry is individual or team) and I will share in that responsibility, as needed. The trips are:
 - Design Competition Mentor Weekend to be held in May 2019 in a location to be announced. I understand that domestic travel and lodging will be provided for my child (and his or her team in the case of team entries) and one chaperone, in order to make this trip. All other expenses incurred by my child or me in connection with this trip will be my sole responsibility.

- Judging Weekend on June 8–9, 2019 in New York City. I understand that domestic travel and lodging will be provided for my child (and his or her team in the case of team entries) and one chaperone, in order to make this trip. All other expenses incurred by my child or me in connection with this trip will be my sole responsibility.
- Should my child be selected as the winner:
 - My child, his or her team in the case of team entries, and a chaperone will travel with my child to Target’s headquarters in Minneapolis, Minnesota during summer 2019. I understand that domestic travel and lodging will be provided for my child, his or her team in the case of team entries, and the chaperone, but all other expenses incurred by my child or me in connection with this trip will be my sole responsibility. I understand that this trip is optional, but highly encouraged.
 - My child, his or her team in the case of team entries, and a chaperone will travel to New York City during National Design Week to attend the Teen Design Fair on October 15, 2019. I understand that domestic travel and lodging will be provided for my child, his or her team in the case of team entries, and the chaperone, but all other expenses incurred by my child or me in connection with this trip will be my sole responsibility. I understand that this trip is optional, but highly encouraged.
- The designs of all finalists and honorable mentions will be displayed at Cooper Hewitt, on the Design Competition website, and any other locations as determined by Cooper Hewitt and/or Target.
- The Smithsonian and Target are under no obligation to use or retain my child’s Designs. Further, although the winning design will be featured at the Smithsonian, my child’s Designs will not be accessioned into the Smithsonian’s collections.
- I release and hold harmless the Smithsonian and its regents, officers, agents, employees, fellows, interns, research associates, and volunteers, and Target, from any and all claims, actions and demands of any kind arising out of my child or my participation in the Cooper Hewitt National High School Design Competition and my or my child’s acceptance or usage of the awards and prizes, or the Smithsonian or Target’s use of my child’s Designs or his or her name and likeness as provided herein.
