DESIGNERS BEGIN BY DEFINING A PROBLEM

Defining the problem helps designers understand how to approach their challenge. What's your design challenge? Write down your design challenge in the space below or on a piece of paper.

USERS

Who is your user? What does your user need? Use the space below, or a piece of paper to share more about your user.